

Information on your destination Hapimag Bad Gastein

Getting there

Car

From the north:

Border crossing at Salzburg-Walserberg. Follow the Tauern motorway towards Villach (A10) as far as the Bischofshofen/St. Johann exit. Then take the dual carriageway (B311) to the crossroads into the Gastein valley (B167).

In the Gastein Valley, continue on the B167 towards Bad Gastein (approximately 20 km). After passing through Bad Hofgastein, follow the signs to "Badeseesee", "Golf", "Nikolauskirche" or Badbruck (turn left at the Bertahof restaurant). In the Bad Bruck district, follow the road to the bridge across the Gasteiner Ache, after the bridge turn right and follow the road until after approx. 2.5 km you see the Hapimag sign on the left.

From the east:

Continue driving in the direction of Salzburg. Keep going on the Tauern motorway towards Villach (A10) as far as the Bischofshofen/St. Johann exit. Then take the dual carriageway (B311) to the crossroads into the Gastein valley (B167).

From here on, follow the directions as if you were coming from the north.

From the west:

From Arlberg via Innsbruck, take the exit for Wörgl Ost, St. Johann in Tirol, Lofer, Saalfelden, Zell am See and Lend and continue to the exit into the Gastein valley (B167).

From here on, follow the directions as if you were coming from the north.

From the south:

Head from Villach on the A10 in the direction of Salzburg until you reach the Spittal crossroads. At the Spittal crossroads motorway junction, take the left lane and follow the sign for Lienz/Mallnitz/Lendorf. Turn right in Obervellach to head towards Mallnitz. Take the Tauernschleuse motorail link in Mallnitz north.

After the Tauernschleuse makes its final stop in Böckstein, drive towards Bad Gastein. Pass the station and continue on to the tourist information office (on the right). Turn right here and continue onwards until you see the Hapimag Kaiserhof sign on your right.

You must purchase an Autobahn-Vignette (toll sticker) if you plan to drive on Austrian motorways (vignettes are available for ten days or two months).

Rail

All Intercity and Eurocity trains stop at the Bad Gastein station (2.5 km from the resort).

Owing to the considerable difference in altitude between the station and the resort, we recommend you take the bus (route 555 to Nikolauskirche) or a taxi.
