

Information on your destination Hapimag Damnoni

Getting there

Car

From Heraklion Airport:

From the airport go straight on towards the national road until the junction "Agios Nikolaos - Heraklion, Chania, Rethymno" (after about 300 m). At the exit turn off in the direction of Rethymno/Chania. You are now on the national road and drive around the city of Heraklion. After about 80 km, leave the national road at the sign Spili and continue on the regional road towards Armeni/Spili/Plakias. Important: do not enter the city of Rethymno.

And after another 9 km (directly 300 m after the AVIN petrol station before the village of Pale) turn right towards Ag. Vasilius/Plakias. Follow the road to Plakias/Sellia. After about 10 km you will reach the Kotsifou Gorge. At the end of the gorge there is a sign Plakias where you turn left. After the gorge you pass through the village of Myrthios and then at the crossroads turn right towards Plakias/Hapimag sign. After a short drive there is another crossroads where you turn left towards Damnoni. After about 0.5 km you will reach the sign Hapimag Damnoni, turn right.

From Chania Airport:

Drive around 6 km towards Chania and then turn left towards Souda (small sign). Continue through Souda until you reach the Chania-Rethymnon main road. Drive towards Rethymnon (eastwards) until you reach the sign for Spili (around 65 km). Then continue as described above in the section on travelling from Heraklion Airport.
